IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

CHIEF SECRETARIAT

Raising the maximum pension admissible to a Minister from Rs. 600 to Rs. 700 per mensem.

ORDER No. 2164-2223—C. B. 110-47-2, DATED, (CAMP) MYSORE, THE 22ND OCTOBER 1947.

Under the existing rules [Article 320 (c) of the Mysore Service Regulations], the rate of pension in the case of Ministers will be Rs. 600 per mensem, provided the following conditions are complied with :—

(i) Thirty years of qualifying service ;
(ii) Three years' service as Minister ;
(iii) Proof of special energy and efficiency while holding office of a Minister.

His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to direct that the maximum pension admissible to a Minister be raised from Rs. 600 to Rs. 700 per mensem.

V. VEDAVYASACHARYA, Chief Secy.

Revision of the strength in the three grades in the Cadre of Deputy Commissioners.

ORDER No. 2224-2283—C. B. 111-47-1, DATED (CAMP) MYSORE, THE 22ND OCTOBER 1947.

Under the existing orders, the sanctioned strength of the cadre of Deputy Commissioners is eighteen (16+2 Temporary) and these eighteen posts are allocated as indicated below :—

I Class : 4
II Class : 5
III Class : 7+2 Temporary.

An examination of the actual composition of the cadre as it stands at present shows that there are 39 Officers against the sanctioned strength of 18 Officers. The large increase in the number of Officers is due to temporary additions to the cadre and also due to the fact that some of the Officers are holding special appointments outside the cadre. Additions which have been made to the cadre of Deputy Commissioners have been only in the III Class, the number in the I and II Classes remaining the same. There has, therefore, been no scope for easy flow of promotions from class to class and many Officers in the lowest class are drawing the same pay for a long time.

With a view to relieve this hardship, Government are pleased to direct that the strength in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners be fixed as below :—

Deputy Commissioners	I Class	...	7
Do	II "	...	7
Do	III "	...	10

Raising the maximum limit of Pension in the case of Officers whose scale of pay is above Rs. 1,000.

ORDER No. 2113-63—C. B. 110-47-1, DATED (CAMP) MYSORE, THE 22ND OCTOBER 1947.

Under the existing rules [Art. 320 (b) of the Mysore Service Regulations] the maximum amount of pension admissible to any officer is limited to Rs. 500 per mensem except in the case of Judges of the High Court, whose cases are governed by special rules, and of Ministers in whose case the maximum is fixed at Rs. 600, subject to certain restrictions. Even an officer who has rendered 30 years of approved service and drawn a pay of Rs. 1,400 per mensem for at least 36 months prior to the date of retirement from service would be eligible to a pension of Rs. 500 only as indicated below :—

Length of service ... 30 years.
Scale of pension ... $\frac{30}{60} \times 1,400 = 700$, but restricted to Rs. 500 per mensem.

Any higher scale of pay in excess of Rs. 1,000 drawn by officers does not, therefore, in any way benefit them from the pension point of view.

Government are, therefore, pleased to direct that the maximum limit of pension in the case of officers whose scale of pay is above Rs. 1,000 per mensem be raised from Rs. 500 to Rs. 600 per mensem.

Necessary amendment to the Mysore Service Regulations will issue separately.

V. VEDAVYASACHARYA, Chief Secy.
